Bromelkamp Company Adds Experienced Grantmakers to Consulting Team

Minneapolis, MN; September 29, 2015: Bromelkamp Company takes pride in their reputation of outstanding customer service and creative solutions. When hiring Consulting Team members, these attributes are highly sought after. With that in mind, the Bromelkamp Company Consulting Team added two new employees in 2015: Marie Erb as Support Representative and Jeff Tenbusch as Database Consultant.

Bromelkamp Company is committed to outstanding service and providing personalized customer support. In fact, Bromelkamp Company notably provides unparalleled support in the industry because they offer exceptional training and service and focus on customer satisfaction, not on contracts or annual fees. Bromelkamp's 13 employees offer a combined 78 years of grantmaking and nonprofit experience.

In January 2015, Marie Erb joined the Consulting Team and has already earned the trust of Bromelkamp's clients as well as the esteem of her colleagues. Working from Northeastern Ohio, she brings 13 years of experience as administrator and grants manager for The Burton D. Morgan Foundation and as Director of Operations and Grants for The Margaret Clark Morgan Foundation, both in Hudson, Ohio. Prior to her work at the foundations, she assisted nonprofits as Assistant Director for the Nonprofit Resource Center at BVU: The Center for Nonprofit Excellence, served Akron area leaders as LeaderSource Project Leader at Leadership Akron, and served clients as Client Relations Assistant at the law firm of Buckingham, Doolittle & Burroughs.

As of September 2015, Jeff Tenbusch is the newest addition to Bromelkamp Company as he takes a position as a Database Consultant. Jeff brings a combined 5 years of experience from the philanthropic and nonprofit sector and is located in Northwest Michigan. He served the Bay Area Community Foundation in Michigan as a Program Officer/Communications Officer, and prior to that was a grant writer for New Dimensions, Inc. of Bay City Michigan.

In an ongoing effort to maintain a high level of customer satisfaction, Bromelkamp Company is pleased to welcome the experience of both Marie and Jeff as the newest members of the Bromelkamp Team. They are both eager to provide outstanding customer service and share their knowledge through leadership and in designing grants management software solutions.
