Bromelkamp Company LLC Expands its Consulting Team

Minneapolis, MN; May 31, 2018: As an industry leader of grants management software solutions, Bromelkamp Company is committed to the ongoing success of its clients through the use of technology as well as high-level service. With an emphasis on long-lasting relationships, Bromelkamp is also dedicated to maintaining outstanding customer service and support, a value embodied by the database consultants of the Consulting Team. In addition to providing technical support, this team works with clients through software implementation, data conversion, and initial and ongoing training (to all levels of users). Bromelkamp Company clients appreciate the personalized approach to service, and that the team possesses not only technical expertise, but also an understanding of how technology applies to the work they do.

"Everyone I've talked to in the tech department is responsive and friendly, and can explain things in a non-tech way." - Kareema Cruz, Grants Manger, TAWANI Foundation

"I think it's the Bromelkamp culture - it's professional but also friendly. I feel like I really know you guys and you know me, and it's a small enough company that we can have that kind of relationship." -Pat Woehrer, Vice President of Client Services, The Legacy Group, Inc.

In continuation of Bromelkamp Company's history of excellent service and support, the staff is thrilled to welcome Gail Sullivan as the newest Database Consultant. After 30 years at the March of Dimes Foundation, with 20 years as Senior Database Administrator, Gail is excited to put her database knowledge to work as part of the Consulting Team. While Gail is new to the team, she was introduced to Bromelkamp Company 28 years ago when the March of Dimes Foundation implemented HOBIE, the predecessor to Pearl (grants and contact management database) which the March of Dimes Foundation transitioned to a few years later.

Gail Sullivan, Database Consultant

Outside of work, Gail enjoys hiking, kayaking, visiting local wineries, and spending time with her husband Steven and daughters Shannon and Megan. Gail also loves to read, and is a member of a book club. She is an adult Girl Scout with many volunteer roles, including training leaders, operating programs for girls and adults, and mentoring girls who are going for their Gold Award, the highest award in Girl Scouts. She holds a degree from York College of Pennsylvania, with a BS in Criminal Justice.
